Czar of House Unbends.

Speaker Cannon is showing some signs of unbending toward the insurgents. For years he has not spoken to Victor Murdock. To others he has not spoken for many months. But recently the speaker has been in a more forgiving mood. The other day he got down out of the chair and went over to the vicinage of Flerbert Parsons of New York, sat down and talked in the most agreeable fashion. Parsons looked haughty, but "Unice Joe" spoke in kindly, fatherly tones, and it seemed to have something of a sootiling spoke in kindly, fatherly tones, and it seemed to have something of a soothing effect on the New Yorker. It amazed the insurgents. Norths of Nebraska rushed over to Victor Murdock and inquired anytously if he saw aright or had a somnambulistic dream. "No. you're awake all right. Uncle Joe's scairt," said Murdock. Not alone did the speaker converse with Parsons, but he talked in the most pleasant fashion for fiftsen minutes with Madison of Kansas, who is badly infected with the insurgent germ. Even the regulars are wondering what has come over the speaker.

After an Insurgent

After an Insurgent.

Speaking of insurgents. Representative Hayes of California is the first of the group who has been put on notice that he will have to fight for his political life, though they all understand the situation pretty fully. It is learned here that the faction in the Republican party in California, which is dominated by the Southern Pacific railroad, has decreed that Hayes must cease being an insurgent on penalty of being deprived of the organization vote. Mr. Hayes declines to quit the house rules. He will have to depend therefore, on the Lincoin-Reosevelt farbing for support. Inasmuch as the two factions are about equal in strength, Mr. Hayes according to members of the California delegation, either force, who has provided the control of the control o fornia delegation, either will be supplanted by a Democrat or will have to face strenuous opposition for the nomination at the direct primaries, with the Southern Pacific Interests doing its utmost to defeat him. Mr. Hayes is the largest prune grower in the world and is reputed to be a millionaire.

Sincere regret is felt over the announcement of Senator Flint of California and Senator Piles of Washington that they can no longer afford to remain in the senate. Both men have been valuable senators and have made many friends information has reached the California members of congress that Francis J. Teller in Washington.

A famillar figure is seen these days on stopping to listen to "the boys" in de-bate, is the venerable form of former Sen-ator Henry M. Teller of Colorado. He has been here for several days, and as often as he goes away, just as often does he return. For twenty-five years Sena-tor Teller had a seat in the chamber. The life of the senate became a part of his life, and now he haunts the scene of his former activities. He is a member of the monetary commission, and this is his reason for lingering in Washington. Of-ficial life of Washington has grown to know the little gray haired man from the weat. COPENHAGEN. Feb. 19.—Exasperated telephone subscribers who, unable to "get through" as quickly as they would like indulge in harsh language toward the girl clepks, have been eleverly brought to book by the telephone administration. At first it was found difficult to identify the offenders, so a gramophone apparatus was installed at the central exchange. The moment a subscriber began to use anseemly language the girl would have it recorded by the gramophone. Some of the worst offenders were summoned to the director's office and when they denied their hasty remarks they were convicted by an exact repitition in their own voice on the gramophone. To Eliminate Word "Slave." Special Cable to The Tribune.

Special Cable to The Tribune.

PEKIN, Feb. 13.—The army advisory council has petitioned the throne to permit the discontinuance of the term "slave" which etiquette has hitherte compelled military officials to employ in speaking of themselves in memorials to the employ. This rule has been one of the signs of the inferior position of the military in China, but as the government has been striving to remove such obnoxious distinctions, and to establish equality between civil and military disputations, it is highly probable that the request will be granted.
